

A new menu concept every Sunday; ideal for chilled mates and relaxed dates – it is Dim Sum and then some!

Sunday's are known to be a day of rest, and the introduction on Yum Cha at Cottonopolis is all about laid-back dining and encouraging customers to make that time to spend with friends and family.

Yum Cha will take place from 12pm, with 2-hour sittings until late each Sunday and for £26 per person – served to you from a traditional trolley, you can enjoy a variety of Asian-style small plates. The menu itself reflects Asian night snack culture with the dishes are ever changing and evolving. Each sitting will see the choice of 15+ dishes and will feature Cottonopolis favourites alongside some extra new and exciting dishes.

No hassle of choosing from menu's, we will bring a large variety of sharing items to your table on our specialised trolleys.

Accompanying Yum Cha, and to follow on with the sharing element, there will be speciality wines at a discounted price and a tea-based cocktail menu.

Whether you are on a date night or catching up with family, this is the perfect way to bring the week to a close; bringing loved ones together surrounded by the tastiest plates that the kitchen has to offer.

Come down and give Yum Cha a try – it is Dim Sum and then some!
