

Yatai Sunday Street Food

£26 per head for a two-hour laid-back dining experience.

Our Yatai (food Cart) Street Food runs every Sunday inside the beautiful Cottonopolis and is ideal for; chilled mates, family feasts, hang over cures and relaxed dates.

This experience includes a starting snack of Thai Prawn crackers then four waves of savoury food each containing four small plates of the tastiest dishes our kitchen has to offer to share between two (so 16 dishes in total). Hand delivered from our trollies by our wonderful serving team in twenty-minute intervals. This ever-changing menu can include a mixture of dishes from all over Asia adding a balanced variety that is always new and exciting.

On the carts you can expect to see, sushi, dumplings, bo'a's, fried favourites and robata grilled meats and vegetables and salads. We then end your meal with a miniature selection of Asian inspired desserts.

Sittings run 12pm-2pm / 2:15pm- 4:15pm / 4:30pm- 6:30pm and 6:45pm- 8:45pm.

Booking is essential.

We can adapt this menu to suit Vegans and most dietary requirements but unfortunately due to the nature we would not recommend Yatai Sunday street food this for people with Gluten intolerances.
